PERGAMON

International Journal of Educational Research 29 (1998) v–xi

International Journal of Educational Research

Subject index

bstraction 3, 77–88
abstracting activity 80 acquisition of complex ideas 37–47 articulation 41 assembly 42
conceptual coordination 5–18
epistemic games 49–60 epistemological function 46
generality 38, 64
mathematical constructs 63–73
nature, costs and benefits 21–33 notion of 78 ultimate origin 43
ccelerated schools 137, 138 chievement learning environment 284–291
New York City Public Schools ILS Project 119–136
chievement testing 379 computer technology 389 constructed-response item formats 380 criterion-referenced, score interpretations 383 high-order cognitive skills 381 reliability and validity 387 technological advances in measurement models 385 ctions 66
substitution through numerical reasoning 67 ctivities, conception of 13
daptive Instruction and Cooperative Learning (AGO) 285 daptive Learning Environments Model (ALEM) 137, 138
dult learning environments 322 GO project 285
lternative assessments 395, 396, 435–437 consequences 407 fairness 404
key to reform 397
technical quality 399
transformative learning 425
ptitude, achievement in mathematics and physics 284–291 ptitude-Treatment-Interaction 284 Argument 24, 52
Argument-based approach to validity 417
Arizona State Assessment System 407
Army Alpha and Beta tests 704
Articulation of abstractions 41
Assessment influence of learning and instruction 415–429 school reform 395–410
Associations 21, 22
Attendance 276, 277, 335
Attitude
SAM 120, 130, 133
school culture 564
Attitudes of Professional Autonomy (APA) 274
Australia
CLES 296, 299
education and earnings 516–524

Basic skills tests 382
Beaurocratic Orientation Scale (BOS) 274
Belgium, paedology 680–696
Benefits of education 453–479
Bias, alternative assessment 404, 405
Binet-Simon scales 703
Biological determinism 705, 709
Bronx High School of Science, school culture 564
Buddies Program 577

Calculation 12
California Achievement Test (CAT-5) 119
Canada, education and earnings 516–524
Categorization 666
Change Facilitator Style Questionnaire 274
Character development ethical identity development, kibbutz 629–640
gender and moral judgement 605–616 models of moral identity 619–626 moral understanding and motivation 587–602 psychological foundations and education implications 539–549
school culture 553–567

883-0355/98/$ – see front matter © 1998 Published by Elsevier Science Ltd. All rights reserved DI: S0883-0355(98)00067-6

social and ethical development in schools 571–585
Character education 539, 548
Characterization, epistemic games 54, 56
Child Development Project 555, 571–585
Child psychology 673–685, 716, 717
Child study
Jens Olsen 679–685
paedological movement 688
United States 701
Childhood, normalcy 661–671
Classroom assessment 416, 437
Classroom environment
CLES 294–300
physics 333–341 resilient and non-resilient students from inner city schools 343–351
student discourse 311–320
Classroom Environment Scale (CES) 346, 348
Coalition of Essential Schools 137, 138
Co-assessment 425
Cognition, abstraction 3, 77–78
acquisition of complex ideas 37–47
conceptual coordination 5–18
epistemic games 49–60
mathematical constructs 63–73
relations 21
Cognition, alternative assessment 397
Cognitive models 7
Collaborative classroom learning 575
Colligatory concepts, history 204 Community returns to education 457, 470
school culture 553–567, 572, 581–585
Compositionality 24
Comprehensive Assessment of School
Environments (CASE) 564
Comprehensive Instructional Management System (CIMS) 120
Computer technology, achievement testing 389, 440
Computerized adaptive testing (CAT) 390
Conceptual change, learning of history 201–209
Conceptual coordination 5–18
Conceptual restructuring 82
Conceptualization 11, 79
Configural associations 22, 27
Connectionism 86
Construct underrepresentation 419, 420
Constructed-response item formats 380, 440
Constructivism 370, 435, 444
Constructivist Learning Environment Survey
(CLES) 293–300, 313–320, 335–339
Constructivist preschools 555
ConTEST 389
Courseware utilization, New York City Public Schools ILS Project 131, 133
Criminal behaviour, impact of education 508
Criteria in assessment 420
Criterion-referenced tests, score interpretations 383 Cross national study, education and earnings 513–524
Cultural relativism 363
Culture, school 554

Danish Educational Association 676, 678, 679, 682
Decision making 55
Degeneration 364
Degrees of Reading Power Test 119, 154
Descriptions 11, 14, 54
Descriptive cognitive models 5, 10, 15 Development
abstraction 31
quantitative schemata 69
Developmental Discipline 576
Developmental standards 667, 668, 671
Differential item functioning 389
Dilthey, W. 191
Discipline, developmental 576
Disciplinary explanations 222, 223
Discourse approach, school community 553
DISTAR 137, 145, 147, 148
Distributional impacts of education, measurement 473
Dreaded self 542–549

Earnings and education 459–465, 474, 485, 487, 513–524
Effect size school improvement programs 147
WILS 129, 130
Effectiveness, school learning environment 273–280, 321–328
Ego development 630, 632
Elemental associations 22, 25
Embodied action 14
Emotional attributions, morality 594
Empathy, understanding history 233
Empirical research progressive education 715–721
societal factors 645
Emplotment 194
Empowerment 304
Endogenous development 449, 456, 478

Endogenous growth 455, 456, 459, 469
Environmentalism 652, 656
Environments, educational 269
  authentic, alternative perspectives 303–310
  interaction with student characteristics, maths and physics 283–292 interaction with student discourse about knowing and learning 311–320 monitoring constructivist classrooms (CLES) 293–302 multiple, physics classroom 333–342 resilient and non-resilient students from inner city schools 343–353 schools, measuring, linkages to effectiveness 321–331 schools, organisational structures and effectiveness 273–283
Epistemic games 49–60
Equity
  education and incomes 474, 478
  performance assessment 405, 406
Erikson's value orientation stages, ethical identity development 629–640
Essay writing, understanding in history 257–264
Ethical development 594
  Child Development Project 571–585
Erikson's model 629–640
Ethnic differences in education 655, 709
Ethnography, New York City Public Schools ILS project 99–116
Eugenics 365, 367
  educational impact 647–659, 707
Evolution, intelligence 363
Experimental pedagogy 688, 694
Explanation
  epistemic games 54, 56
  history 221–231, 233–243, 245–253
Externalism 86

Facility learning 304–310
Fairness, alternative assessment 404
Family investments in children, impact of education 505
Fertility, impact of education 504, 508
Formative assessment 425
Fractions 71

g-coefficient 388
g factor 703, 708, 709 Gender
  education and earnings 515, 519, 521, 522 mathematics and physics 284, 285, 289 moral reasoning and judgement 605–616
  performance assessment 404
  returns to education 485, 486
Generality 37–47, 64
Generalizability theory 387, 402
Generations, impact of education 503–509
Germany
  education and earnings 516–524
  historical thinking and learning by students and teachers 211–220
Graduate records exam 382
Growth with equity 478
Grundtvigianism 674

Health and education 495
Hempel, C. 190
Hereditarianism 650, 701, 702
Higher-order cognitive skills, measurement 381, 443
Higher-order knowledge, epistemic games 50, 58
Historical causality 245–253, 263
Historical consciousness 212–215
History 187
  alternative conceptions 203 concepts of learning 216–218 concepts of thinking 212–216 conceptual change and learning of 201–210 developing unerstanding while writing essays 255–265 explaining events 245–254 historicists 191
  instructional explanations 221–232 teaching to understand the future 189–200 understanding action in the past 233–244 what to teach 194
Holm, Rasmus Jensen 678
Homeside Activities 577
Household production, returns to education 456, 458, 466
Human capital, returns to education 469, 470, 506
Hungary, education and earnings 516–524

Ideal Self 542–549
Idealizations 81
Ideas, abstraction 37–47
Identical twins, returns to education 462, 484
Identity development, Erikson's value orientation stages 629–640
Income distribution, impact of education 473
Incomes inequality, educational attainment 513–524
Index of Perceived Organizational

Effectiveness 275–277, 324, 326
Individual returns to education 457
Inequality, earnings and education 513–524
Infinity 69, 70
Inner-city schools, classroom learning environments 343–351
Inquiry, epistemic games 55, 56
Inservice training, WILS 95, 139
Instructional explanations, history 221, 223–229
Instructional learning Environment Questionnaire 346, 348
Integrated learning and assessment systems 426
Integrated learning system (ILS) 93, 153, 159
Intellectual overworking 669, 670
Intelligence testing 359–375, 433, 653, 699 childhood and normalcy 668 controversies about efficacy 708 development of 702
educational reforms 366
IQ 704
meritocracy 368
philosophy of science 369 political and social climate 363 psychometrics versus psychology 371 schooling and social origins 700 vocations and school efficacy 706
Intergenerational returns to education 503–509
Investment in education 527–531
IQ 703
testing in United States 704–712
Item response theory 385, 386

Jericho High School, school culture 559–563
Just Comminity 540, 549, 553, 555, 556, 557, 562
Justification, epistemic games 55, 56

Kibbutz, ethical identity development 629–640
Knowledge-transforming writing processes, history 263

Language, cognition 83, 87
Law-covering theory 190
Learning active process, CDP 573 alternative assessments 397, 425
history 201–209, 216, 255
influence of assessment 415–429
Powerful Learning Environments 422
transformative 424
Learning environments 269, 422
authentic, alternative perspectives 303–310
interaction with student characteristics, maths and physics 283–292 interaction with student discourse about science 311–320 monitoring constructivist classrooms (CLES) 293–302 multiple, physics classrooms 333–342 resilient and non-resilient students from inner city schools 343–353
schools, measuring, linkages to effectiveness 321–331 schools, organizational structures and effectiveness 273–282
Learning paradox 202
Levels concept, learning history 187
Life cycle, returns to education 459
Literature-based reading and language arts, CDP 575
Local item dependence 388
Logic 56
Longitudinal data, returns to education 485
Luxembourg Income Study 513

Macroeconomics, measurement of returns to education 451
Mathematical constructs, abstract reasoning 63–73, 79
Mathematics
CLES 293–300
MAT-M 119, 154
New York City Public Schools ILS project 123, 124, 126, 128, 129
student characteristics and learning environment interactions 283–291 Measurement, returns to educatucation 449 changes over time 487
conceptual framework 453–479
income distributional effects and equity 472
longitudinal data 485
macroeconomics 451
market returns 483–490
monetary 456–465, 472
non-market outcomes of schooling 496–498
non-monetary 465–472
system of national accounts 527–531
Medicine, childhood and normalcy 666
Mental age 668
Mental tests 701, 702
Mentalization, history 206, 207
Meritocracy 368, 711
Meta-evaluation. New York City Public Schools ILS Project 159–172, 175–181
Metasystems of history 225, 229
Metropolitan Achievement Test in

Machematics(MAT-M) 119, 154
Model of School Change and Effectiveness 323
Models, moral identity 619–626
Monetary returns to education, measurement 456 Moral education
character development and self-esteem 539–549
Child Development Project 571–585
ethical identity development, kibbutz 629–640
gender and moral judgement 605–616
school culture 553–567
social and ethical development in schools 571–585 understanding and motivation 587–602
Moral Judgement Interviews (MJI) 605, 609, 631, 635 Motivation
moral 587, 590, 591, 594, 597, 601 natural learning 718 resiliency and learning environments 348
Multidimensional Motivation Instrument (MMI) 346, 348
Multiple-choice item 380, 436, 440
My-side bias 57, 58

Narrationality 194
Narrative history 205, 207
National Income and Products Accounts 527
National Intelligence Test 705
National Longitudinal Survey, returns to education 485
National Longitudinal Survey of Youth, returns to education 486
Natural education 715, 718
Netherlands, education and earnings 516–524
Neural models 15
Neurological dysfunctions, abstraction 8
New education 715
New York City Public Schools Integrated Learning Systems Project 91 comparison of school improvement programs 137, 146, 149 evaluation of system cost and replicability 137–151
meta-evaluation 159–172
schools as contexts of implementation 99–116
student achievement and attitude 119–136
WILS 93–97, 153–157, 159–172, 175–181
Normal child 661–671
Normal curve equivalent scores, ILS project 119, 122–126
Normalcy, social forms 664
Norm-referenced tests 383
Numerical reasoning 67

Objectively-scored item formats 381
Objectivity, alternative assessment 404
Olsen, Jens, life and work 674–685
Open classrooms 555
Open discourse 295
Opportunity to learn, bias in 405, 436
Optimal test design 389
Organization, schools, learning environments and effectiveness 273–280
Organizational Coupling Structure Inventory (OCSI) 274, 276, 277
Organizational Supervisory Climate Inventory (OSCI) 275–277
Outcomes of schooling market 483–490
non-market 491–498
Overall assessment prophecy 424
OverAll Test 423

Paedology, heyday in Belgium 687–696
Paidology 717
Parental education, integenerational impact 503–509
Parenting, eugenics 656
Parent involvement, CDP 577
Parents, models of moral identity 621
Peer-assessment 425
Peer collaboration 576
Performance assessment, small-scale instructional settings 415
Performance criteria 421
Performance generalizability 401
Performance standards 382
Personalization of structure, history 205
Personification 206
Physical exercise 670
Physics, learning environments 333–341 student characteristics 283–291
student discourse 311–320
Physics Curriculum Development Project 286
Population growth and education 505
Portfolios 396, 400, 406, 408
Positivism 370, 692
Powerful Learning Environments 422
Prediction 23
Problem solving 55
Productivity, returns to education 469
Professional Learning Environment Inventory (PLEI) 275, 276, 324–328
Progressive education 707, 715–721

Psychological Sense of School Membership 564 Psychometrics achievement testing 379
  intelligence 371

Quantitative schemata, mathematical constructs 64, 68, 69
Questionnaire on Teacher Interaction 287

Racial science 648, 651, 709
Ramat Yedidim 631, 632, 636
Rating procedures, performance assessment 419
Reaction time 360
Reading
  DRP test 119
  New York City Public Schools ILS Project 123, 125, 126, 128, 129
Reading Recovery 137, 141, 147, 148
Real Self 542–549
  Realism 370
  Reasoning 11
  epistemic games 58
  mathematical constructs 63–73
Receptivity to Change Inventory 274, 275 Reforms 442
  large-scale assessment 397–410
Relational approach, school community 553
Relational knowledge 22, 23
Relations, abstract cognition 21–33
Reliability, alternative assessment 399, 436
Reliability theory 387
Remembering, history 193
Representation 6, 54, 85 rank 25–32
Representational systems, history 226
Resilience, classroom learning environments 344–351
Resources, student characteristics and learning environments 283–291
Returns to education, measurement 449, 483
  changes over time 487
  conceptual framework 453–479
  earnings and inequality 513–524
  income distributional effects and equity 472
  integenerational impact 503–509
  longitudinal data 485
  macroeconomics 451
  market returns 483–490
  monetary 456–465, 472
  non-market outcomes of schooling 491–498
  non-monetary 465–472
  system of national accounts 527–531
Rhetoric, teaching of history 199
Ricoeur, P. 193

Schema theories 63
Scholastic Assessment Test 381
School Attitude Measure (SAM) 120, 131, 133
School community 553–567, 572, 581–585
School culture, dimensions and measurement 553–567
School Culture Scale 556
  item and instrument development 558 theoretical framework 557
School Decisional Participation Scale 274
School learning environment and effectiveness 273–280, 321–328
School reform
  CDP 575
  large-scale assessment 397–410
  school culture 563
Schoolwide activities, CDP 577
Schuyten, M. 689–696
Science
  CLES 293–300
  learning environments alternative perspectives 305–310 physics classroom 333–341
    student discourse 311–320
  philosophy of 369
Scientific racism 647, 651, 709
Scoring reliability 399
Selective systems 654
Self, moral judgement and gender 616
Self adaptive testing 390
Self-assessment 425
Self-employment, income and education 515
Self-esteem, character and morality 541, 543
Self-evaluation, character and morality 542–549
Self-explanations 222, 223
Self-interest, moral development 535
Sense of Autonomy Scale (SAS) 274
Shadowing observations 347
Situated cognition 6, 7, 86
Sleep 670
Small-scale assessment 415, 437
Social benefits of education, conceptual framework 453–479
Social context of learning 397, 442
Social Darwinism 363
Social development, Child Development Project 571–585
Social Engineering 663
Social environment, moral judgement, gender differences 608, 612
Social learning 323
Sociomoral Reflection Measure 609
Specialization, epistemic games 56

Speed 72
Standard setting, criterion-referenced tests 382, 384
Stanford-Binet test 704
Statistical reasoning 58
Statistics of society 664
Student average daily attendance 325
Student characteristics, learning environment interactions 283–291
Student interaction of discourse and learning environments 311–320
Student outcomes, New York City Public Schools ILS Project 119–136
Success For All 137, 140, 147
Sweden, education and earnings 516–524
Symbolic market 197
Symbolic reasoning 6, 7, 70
System of National Accounts 527–531

Taiwan, education and earnings 516–524
Task specification chart 418
Teacher leaders 142
Teacher Self and Organizational Efficacy Assessment 275
Teacher training, Jens Olsen 678
Teachers
  history 216
  learning environments 304
  New York City Public Schools ILS Project 101–116, 155
  performance assessment 418
  Reading Recovery 142
WILS and inservice training 95, 139, 155
Teaching, transformative learning 424
Terman, L.M. 704
Testing
  achievement, future directions 379–391
  intelligence 359–375, 433, 653, 668, 699–712
Testing movement 653
Textbooks, eugenics 659
Theodore Roosevelt High School, school culture 558, 562
Thinking, historical 212
TIMSS, CLES 298, 299
Transfer of training 38
Transformative learning 424
Treble track secondary schemes 654
Twins, return to education 462, 484

Understanding, history 233–243, 245–264
United Kingdom, explanation and enquiry in history 233–243
United States
  CLES 298
  education and earnings 516–524
  intelligence testing 699–712
  investment in education 527–531
  learning environment and school effectiveness 323–328

Validation, small-scale performance assessment 416
Validity, alternative assessment 398, 436
Validity theory 388
Value orientation stages, kibbutz 630–640
Vico, G. 192
Vocational training, gender differences in moral judgement 608–616

Waterford Institute 91, 93, 94, 120, 137, 175
Waterford Integrated Learning System (WILS) 93–97, 153–157, 175–181 accuracy 161–165
  comparison with other school improvement programs 137, 146, 149 cost 138, 146, 156, 164 feasibility 166
  inservice training program 95
  meta-evaluation 159–172
  new evaluation model 175 propriety 165–166
  replication 149, 156, 165
  schools as contexts of implementation 99–116, 153
  student achievement and attitude 120, 122–135, 154
  utility 167–170
Wicat Math I and II 95, 120
Wicat Reading I and II 95, 115
Writing, understanding history 257–264
Writing to Read 137, 143, 147, 148